Exhibitor Opportunities

The Premier Annual Training Event for Policy Board Members, Executive Directors, Professional Staff and Strategic Partners of the Nation's Regional Development Organizations.

NADO's 2009 Annual Training Conference

Join the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO) as an exhibitor at our Annual Training Conference in Chicago, Illinois, August 29 - September 1, 2009. Almost 650 representatives from over 150 organizations are expected to attend. Attendees will include regional development organization executive and program staff, and board members who are typically local elected officials. Other rural economic development professionals and federal/state policymakers will attend.

Becoming an exhibitor at our conference offers you a cost-effective opportunity to market your products and services to a diverse network of local elected officials, city managers, regional council staff and development professionals. Your exhibit fee will allow you to attend conference meals and events, providing you with maximum opportunities to meet face-to-face with potential clients.

Join over 650 economic development policy makers and practitioners from America's rural regions in Chicago - a diverse network of development professionals - and share information with them about your organization's programs or services.

Gain Access to Leading Regional Development Practitioners!
