

Livable Community Development and Quality Growth:
Walkability, Alternative Fuels and Water Quality
June 30, 2005

Kentuckiana Regional Planning and Development Agency Offices – KIPDA
11520 Commonwealth Dr.
Louisville, Kentucky

Hosted by the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO) Research Foundation and partners under a cooperative agreement with the US Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), with local coordination provided by the Kentuckiana Regional Planning and Development Agency (KIPDA).

9:30 – 10:00 am Breakfast and Registration

10:00 – 10:15 am Introduction and Acknowledgements
Kelly Novak, Research Manager, NADO Research Foundation, Washington, DC

10:15 – 11:15 am Why the Need for Quality Growth and Livable Community Development?
An introduction to revitalization based on restoring a community's built, natural and cultural assets.
Storm Cunningham, Director, Revitalization Institute, Alexandria, Virginia

11:15 – 12:15 pm Quality Communities in Kentucky
A presentation of two Kentucky projects where development is achieving equitable opportunities, satisfying livelihoods and providing safe, healthy and high quality of living for today and the future.
Diane Boyer, Development Director, Architectural Review Board, Midway College, Midway, Kentucky and former Main Street Coordinator, Versailles, Kentucky
R. Josh Human, Project Manager, University of Louisville, State Hazard Mitigation Center, Louisville, Kentucky

12:15 – 1:45 pm Lunch and Keynote Speaker
Richard Thomas, Executive Director, Eastern Kentucky Personal Responsibility In A Desirable Environment (PRIDE) Initiative, Somerset, Kentucky

2:00 – 3:00 pm Alternative Fuels and Walkable Communities
A look at alternative fuel distribution and walkability planning that allows for efficient transportation and energy/fuels infrastructure development, and identifies conservation management tools for rural communities.
Melissa Howell, Executive Director, Kentucky Clean Fuels Coalition, Louisville, Kentucky
Stacey Clark-Gann, Transportation Planner, KIPDA, Louisville, Kentucky
Mohammad Nouri, Assistant Director of Transportation, City of Louisville, Kentucky

3:00 – 3:15 pm

Break

3:15 – 4:15 pm

Regional Water Resources

Presentations on non-point source pollution prevention practices, such as low impact development, and Phase II Stormwater Permits.

Brooke Shireman, Environmental Technologist II, Nonpoint Source Section at the Kentucky State Division of Water, Frankfort, Kentucky

Michael Mitchell, Environmental Scientist, EPA Office of Water, Wastewater Management and Watershed, Region 4, Atlanta, Georgia