

GREATER NEW ORLEANS
INC
REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

NADO Resilience Convening

May 20, 2015

LA losing coastline at a rapid rate

What's at Risk?: A national supply of chain of goods & services

Source: U.S. Department of Transportation

Emerging Environmental Vision

“Emerging Environmental” describes products and services that help companies create jobs and wealth while managing environmental challenges such as:

Flooding

Coastal Erosion

Subsidence

Industry

Business Retention and Expansion

9 years after Katrina, New Orleans aims to turn environmental weaknesses into economic strengths

Eskew+Dumez+Ripple

Waggoner & Ball Architects

- National and international interest from Sandy to Singapore
- $300 million in Sandy Contracts
- Annual resilience conference in New Orleans

Policy

Coalition for Coastal Resilience and Economy (CCRE)

Louisiana's coast gets new advocates for restoration: Editorial

THE NEW ORLEANS
ADVOCATE

Business coalition to push coastal La. restoration efforts

RESTORE THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER DELTA

Reconnecting the river to its delta to protect people, wildlife and jobs

GNO, Inc. announces launch of Coalition for Coastal Resilience and Economy

Multiple Lines of Flood Protection

Coastal stabilization, levee systems and internal water management work must work in tandem for comprehensive flood protection

